ADDRESSING THE HERITAGE COMMISSION

The public is invited to speak on any public hearing item under discussion by the Heritage Commission.

Please raise your hand and after receiving recognition from the Chairman, stand, state your name and address, and the purpose for speaking.

Generally speaking, the order of presentation after introduction of any item by the Chairman will be:

1. Summary presentation by the Staff and Staff Opinion.
2. Comments by the applicant.
3. Comments by interested citizens.
4. Additional comments by the applicant, as appropriate.
5. Additional comments by citizens, as appropriate.
6. Heritage Commission discussion and actions.

Please remember that, in most cases, the Heritage Commission is merely formulating a recommendation to be submitted to the City Commission. Should you wish to file a protest petition on any application, forms may be obtained from the City Clerks Office, Room 206, City-County Building, 309-5735. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the Development Services Department in Room 201 of the City-County Building or at 309-5720.
